(Would Like to Meet)

THE GROWN UP GAME
VERY
FOR IMMATURE PEOPLE

Contents

1 x Would Like to Meet card
350 word and phrase cards

Number of players

Threesome to Gangbang

Duration of Play

Just keep going 'til you're satisfied. This game's good for a quickie, or an all night sesh.

Foreplay

1. Place the 'Would Like to Meet' card face up between all the players
2. Deal all players 6 cards from the deck
3. Keep the deck nearby where all players can reach it

Getting down to it

The person who most recently went on a date is the Advertiser for the first round

- All players look at their hands
- The Advertiser creates an opening line for the lonely hearts ad from the cards in their hand, then places them face up, above the Would Like to Meet card.
- Using the cards in their hands, the other players create the second half of the ad, and place their cards face down, below the Would Like to Meet card.
- Once all the players have placed their cards, the Advertiser reveals the profiles put down by each player
- The Advertiser chooses who wins, and awards one of the cards currently in play to the winner, which they keep as a point.
- Remove all the other cards (except the Would Like to Meet Card) and place in a discard pile
- All players restock their hands to six cards
- That's the end of the round
- A new advertizer is selected and play continues until you're exhausted and satisfied

The Climax

The first player to win 3 rounds is the winner. When the pleasure finally comes to an end*, cuddle up, and exchange sweet nothings.

*(sometimes if you give yourself 20 minutes you can have another go).
